

First Call for Papers – ACIS2007, December 5-7 in Toowoomba, Australia

You are invited to submit original papers for consideration for ACIS2007. Papers should not be previously published nor submitted in parallel for publication to any other conference, workshop or journal. Papers submitted will be refereed by members of the international program committee and, if selected, published in the conference proceedings. The Program Committee has identified a number of tracks to focus submissions. Some tracks already have potential journal outlets for extended versions of exceptional quality papers. The current list of tracks includes:

- Business Process Management
- Environmental Sustainability in ICT
- Health Information Systems
- ICT Governance, Strategic Alignment and Service Management
- Information Management
- Information Quality
- Information Systems, Culture and Society
- Information Systems Education
- Information Systems Security
- Information Systems and Small Business
- Information Systems Supporting Mobile Work & Leisure
- Philosophical Foundations of Information Systems

Submissions are invited on any topics relevant to information systems and are not limited to these tracks. Full details of tracks including chairs, contents, topics and potential journals will be available at the conference website shortly. A template describing the expected format of paper submissions will also be available at that time.

The closing date for submissions is June 4, 2007. All papers will be double-blind refereed. The maximum paper length is 10 A4 pages (Times Roman 10pt) in total. Oral presentations will be 20 minutes plus 10 minutes for questions.

ACIS2007 is the 18th Australasian Conference on Information Systems and will be held at the University of Southern Queensland, Toowoomba campus from December 5-7. ACIS is the premier Australasian conference for Information Systems academics, covering technical, organisational, industry and social issues in the application of IT to real world problems. The theme for the 2007 conference is 'the 3Rs: Research, Relevance and Rigour: Coming of Age'. A two-day Doctoral Consortium will be held before the conference and will begin on December 3. A small number of panels and/or workshops will also be organised. Prizes for high quality papers will be awarded in several categories.
